Danville Iron and Machine Works.

Danville, Va., Oct. 25.—Special.—A. T. Burr, Jr., trustee, to-day sold to Charles T. Brown and J. T. Carter all the machinery. tools, implements, material, etc., and good will of the Danville Iron and Machine Works. The purchasers will take possession at once, and will proceed to put the works in a position to make them rank with any similar works in the South.

Alired Brewer, the Danville young man who was seriously burt Sunday night on the James river bridge while returning from Manchester to Richmond, was brought home to-night by his father, who went to Richmond for him.

F. P. Spangler, the district lecturer of the Alliance was here to-day, and, while reticent on the subject of politics, said enough to The Times correspondent to confirm the rumor that he has repudiated the Third party nonsense and will support the Democratic ticket.

R. L. Gosney, a leading and influential R. L. Gosney, a leading and infinential Pittsylvania county farmer, who has been advocating the Third party, has come back to the Democratic fold. He says he was in sympathy with the Third party movement, but recent developments have shown him that the Third party is playing tail to the Republican party and he cannot cast his vote to aid that party as against the Democratic party. These area but samples of the cratic party. These are but samples of the instances of the wanderers returning every day and from every direction.

A Cure for Cholera. There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know. W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Owens & Minor Drug Co., 1007 east Main street.

The clever comedian, James B. Mackle, has rather an odd title for a topical song which he introduces in the great laughing burlesque, "Grimes' Cellar Door." It is called "He Didn't Split the Wood," and consists of ten verses, each one being brighter and funnier than the one preceding it.

$150. What a Hargain! $150.

A full 71-3 octave, new upright piano with all modern improvements, with a plush stool and embroidered plush scarf, for only ($150) one hundred and fifty dollars—a wonderful Exposition (special) offer.
